What is Alaska PTA?

Alaska PTA is a statewide organization organized under the authority of National PTA. Organized in 1957, we have been working for the children of Alaska for 50 years. Alaska PTA is the oldest children's advocacy group in the state of Alaska, representing 157 local PTA units all over Alaska with over 9,000 members statewide.

The Mission of the PTA

- To support and speak on behalf of children and youth in the schools, in the community, and before governmental bodies and other organizations that make decisions affecting children;
- To assist parents in developing the skills they need to raise and protect their children;
- To encourage parent and public involvement in the public schools of this nation.

The Purposes of the PTA

- To promote the welfare of the children and youth in home, school, community, and place of worship.
- To raise the standards of home life.
- To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
- To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth.

- To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

What is VIP Membership?

The Alaska PTA VIP unit is a statewide unit, at large, primarily for those who are not members of a local PTA/PTSA unit. Membership is open to any individual, business, organization or coalition member that shares the Mission and Purposes of PTA.

As an Alaska PTA VIP member you receive:

- Membership card giving you Web access to Member's Only sections of the National PTA website (www.pta.org);
- E-mail subscription to the Alaska PTA newsletter and notices;
- Invitations to Alaska PTA & National PTA events; and
- Membership prices on event registration
