

Comprehensive School Health Education – 1990

Resolved: That parents representing the varied opinions on controversial health education issues be involved with the local school districts in developing a well-planned, age appropriate health curriculum for grades K-12; and be it further

Resolved: That teachers and school nurses be adequately trained to teach these subjects in all Alaska school districts and that adequate funding and technical support be provided by the State of Alaska.