

Remedy for Impaired Schools - 1994

Resolved: That the Alaska PTA urges the State of Alaska immediate and direct action to secure relief for students in overcrowded and unsafe public schools: to ensure equitable and standard enforcement of every Alaskan student's right to be housed in safe and adequate facilities as guaranteed by Alaska law and the Constitutions of the State of Alaska and of the United States of America.